Wetumka Citizen Gone To Investigate African "King"

It is reported that two prominent citizens of Wetumka have left for New York as delegates to investigate the claims of Chief Sam, the self-styled African king who was mentioned in last week's issue of this paper as an imposter. In the last week's issue many of the claims have been made of the king. The delegates from Wetumka will return with their report, if favorable, Oklahoma will be a mighty hot place for the African ruler—if in the mean time he has not absconded. Dr. Darmond and a Mr. Coleman are the citizens who went from Wetumka to New York.

H. B. Lott Passes Away

The death of H. B. Lott, a prominent citizen of Sand Springs, last Tuesday morning was a shock to the people of that fast growing town and also to a great extent here in Tulsa. Mr. Lott had been ill since early in September. He was a successful merchant and a man of much influence. The body was brought to this city Wednesday and his funeral was preached at Westley Chapel M. E. Church by Rev. A. P. Blakemore, after which the remains were taken to Grand county, Texas, where he was born 37 years ago this month. A mother, three sisters and three brothers survive him. Also a prospective bride in the person of Mrs. Geo. W. Hunt of this city.

Rev. G. W. Hill of Sherman, Texas, preached two interesting sermons at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church, this city, Tuesday and Wednesday nights respectively. Dr. Hill is a forceful speaker who holds his own in the pulpit.

BEAUTIFUL MEDALS TO BE AWARDED AT TULSA DRY-FARMING CONGRESS

Any man who wins a prize at the International Dry Farming Congress and Exposition at Tulsa will at once achieve a reputation that is more than national. Good farmers would compete if the value of the prizes were but a penny each, for the honor in itself is worth while.

The Congress, however, never does things by half nor in the ordinary way. Its prizes for the Tulsa Exposition will be greater in value than those of any other fair or exposition in the United States on similar classes of entries, but they will not be given in money except in a few instances.

Nearly all fairs give small cash prizes which are quickly spent and as quickly forgotten. The International Congress will give specially engraved and embossed medals, together with bronze and solid silver cups and trophies and farm machinery, in practically all of its competitive classes.

Beautifully engraved gold and silver awards, bearing the winner's name, will be given in more than 500 individual classes for wheat and farmer to produce better crops and more of them per acre. This year's prize list totals a greater value than has ever before been given at any International Dry Farming Congress or Exposition.

bor, Michigan. The baler is adapted for use with any gas power and the winner may select any 6 h. p. gas engine made in the United States or Canada. The value of the engine and baler combined is $750.

Another big prize is that for the best yield of silage from results announced by affidavits of three reputable neighbors of contestant. Samples of the yield to be shown at Tulsa. The prize is an Indiana Silo valued at $250.00, given by the Indiana Silo company of Kansas City, Mo. Other special prizes aggregating nearly $400.00 in value will be given in the feed and forage classes.

The growth of the livestock and dairy industries in the southwest is today of so much importance in profitable farming that special attention is being paid to feed and forage exhibits at the International Soil Products Exposition at Tulsa. The largest prize ever offered in forage classes in any exposition will be given at Tulsa next October for the best collection, by individual farmer, of grass and forage.

K. L. of H. Leaders

Dr. W. B. Humphrey, Messrs. H. T. Hutton and W. L. Nall, all of Sapulpa, grand protectors, grand secretary-treasurer of endorsement and state organizers respectively of the K. and L. of H. were visitors in this city last week enroute to various places in the state setting up new lodges for the order and giving new life to old ones. There can be no "dead ones" where these "knights" sojourn. The order is rapidly increasing in numbers, due to the constant work of these men, and when the grand lodge comes to Tulsa next year the world will hear new things of this young order.
